John McHugh

I thought I might sign this book agin, so small world (I swear) well this year has been fun, Mr. George was an experience I wonder if we will ever find out if he is a drunk or not. F.C is going to be fun. I'll be right next door to you, at Cape Henry. Well it is to bad about your hand, hopefuly everything will work out next year and you can be on basketeball, base ball, and maybe even track. (let's hope they let you play.) You probably don't remember but the first time I saw you I thought you'd be some stuck-up jock, well I was very) wrong. You a really, good friend + you helped me through a lot. Maybe we'll run into eceh other this summer. (it is such a small world.) Take care of your very tall body and enjoy the sun shine. You know I can sum this year up in one sentance. It has been totally, radically, insane to the max. Unreal statement huh? Well good luck on Norris's exam, and wish me luck on Georges too. SEE YA' THIS SUMMER,

Sarah PS KEEP IN TOUCH 481-0940

John!!!

World History is not fun but knowing you has been! Sometimes you really know how to get to a person with your "Koot"! Even though there is "Trouble In Doggy Land" you still are neat. Someday you will learn to use a razor right & won't shave your face off! Have fun this summer & DON'T (I repeat.... DON'T) break another finger!

Remember....

Steve Martin loves you!

Dearest Romeo,

We've survived Gymnasiums together now we're off to F.C. I'm really glad you moved here 'cause it's really fun to flirt with you!. (Just Kidding!) I think you're really cute, sweet, nice, intellectual, etc. I really like your moustache, (remember). Make sure that you say hi to me in the halls and everywhere else or I'll think you're a snob. Bring Dana by this summer to Diane's house. (I live right next door). This summer you're going to have to ride bikes to the beach with me, OK? Well you know I love you and all that so. Love always,

Nancy McC
